

K-12 Work-Based Learning

Work-based learning opportunities provide real-life work experiences that engage and prepare K-12 students for the workforce and their future careers.

Student Benefits

- Relevance of education to skills required in the workplace
- Increased motivation for academic success
- Awareness of career opportunities and training needed

Employer Benefits

- Early engagement with a talent pipeline for future workforce
- Reduces recruitment and training costs
- Strengthens partnerships between school and community

K-12 Work-based Learning Experiences

Career Awareness & Exploration

- Workplace tours
- Classroom speakers
- Career Fairs
- Employer interviews
- Job shadowing
- Project-based learning

Career Preparation & Training

- Internships
- Pre-apprenticeships
- Co-ops
- Industry-sponsored projects
- Mock interviews
- Job shadowing

Contact Information

Allegan

Joe Senn
joe.senn@alleganaesa.org

Barry

Michelle Wager
mwagner@barryisd.org

Ionia

Ashli Jordan
ioniaisd.org

Kent

Ryan Graham
workforce@kentisd.org

Mecosta - Osceola

Caleb Martz
cmartz@moisd.org

Montcalm

Sharon Lutz-Krebill
slutzkrebill@maisd.com

Muskegon

Sasamon Parker
sparker@muskegonisd.org

Newaygo

Andy Melius
amelius@ncresa.org

Ottawa

Shayna Carlson
scarlson@oaisd.org

Mason - Lake - Oceana

Shelby Hughes
shughes@wsesd.org